FE / 433 To discuss and agree the scope and high level details of the planned community consultation to enable a brief to be developed for consultants.

The scope and high level details of the planned community consultation were discussed and agreed. The Clerk was asked to write a brief to be circulated to consultants to provide quotes for carrying out the consultation. Key points agreed during the discussion were:

- The aim of the consultation is to inform the strategic plans for the Pavilion and other facilities across the Parish, planning for the future needs of the community based on feedback from the community.
- Combination of online and paper questionnaires, and open event(s).
- Consultation will include residents of all ages, local businesses and service providers, Derwen College, RJA Orthopaedic Hospital
- Consultation will include Shropshire Council and their plans for the area – specifically any services at risk.
- Dependent on consultants' timescales and availability, aim for completion by the end of August.
- A dedicated additional issue of the Parish Roundabout magazine could be produced and distributed.
- The Parish Council's new website will be launched before the consultation starts.
